New soliciting rules considered

The Granite City Council was expected to consider action Tuesday on a proposed solicitation ordinance. The ordinance would limit roadblocks commonly used by organizations to solicit charitable contributions. The ordinance calls for organizations to register with the attorney general's office and would require an organization to be involved in a statewide fund-raising effort.

Mayor to appoint alderman

Madison Mayor John Belleoff is expected to appoint a replacement soon for Madison Alderman Christ Costoff, who died several weeks ago. Costoff was an alderman for the 2nd Ward in Madison. He was re-elected in April 1985 to a four-year term. A replacement will serve the remaining portion of his term. Mayor Belleoff has not set a date on when he will appoint a replacement.

Children's author to visit

Famed author of young children's books, Eugene Baker, will visit District 9 schools on Jan. 29 and 30. Baker will talk to parents at the Granite City High School auditorium at 7 p.m. and will speak on "Reading and Writing Through the Eyes of an Author." Parents whose students are writing for the Young Author's Competition are encouraged to attend.

MADISON — A delegation from the Dunbar School Alumni and Concerned Citizens has asked for confirmation from the Board of Education that it will be able to take over the now vacant Dunbar School or was uncertain whether it hopes to buy the school at an auction or to obtain a lease at little or no cost.
Appearing before the board last week, a spokesman said the group has been promised financial aid from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) or habilitate the building and create housing for senior citizens.
Although board members agreed they would like for someone to take over the former school building, Billie Bosworth of the board sought to learn who would be responsible for the upkeep, insurance, grounds and yenovation.

Board Member Don Garrett said he did not think the board had the right to determine who would take over the building until more detailed legal in formation. has, been presented to the board.

Superintendent of Schools Dan Kostencki told the group he thinks the best approach would be for the alumni to contact Harold "Gene" Briggs, Madison County regional superintendent of schools.

superintendent of schools.

Briggs can provide information and guidelines related to the proposed conversion of the property, Kostenski said.

The discussion with the board brought out a suggestion that the group's attorney meet with the school district a throng the second occurrent should be required.

It also was suggested that the alumni develop architectural drawings of the changes proposed for the building.

Potential speeders in Venice better 'cool it'

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer
VENICE — Drivers traveling through Venice should be aware that 126 traffic citations were issued during December. Most involved speeding violations.
Efforts to curb drivers exceeding posted speed limits within the numicipality are continuing into the new year.

BY MID-AFTERNOON Friday, 147 traffic tickets had been issued since Jan. 1. Once again, the majority of offenses involved vehicles going faster than the limit allows. The speed limit on the main thoroughfares in Venice is 30 mph.

The increased number of tickets being issued translates into cash be-

Nothing is more self-defeating than having a snack eaten in one sitting. It is time for the home chef to move back to the drawing board for a time-efficient snack that will please the after-school crowd and the clock-school crowd and the punchess, too.

Crowd

Toffee-Nut Squares fulfill this seemingly impossible dream.

Made from a cake mix, the base is baked in a generous oblong is baked in a generous pan.

The topping is easily mixed and is spread on the cake base while it is warm, then baked until set. No further work is involved except for cutting the bars and packing or setting them out for everyone's enjoy-ment.

that Southern Illinois community, Vickers informed the board.
Both the Red Devils and Pilots have open dates on that date.
Coach Clinton Harris requested the team be allowed to play Cairo, which is rated seventh in the state among Class A basketball teams, the superintendent said.

LAST MONTII. the board gave permission for the varsity basketball squand to play the Pilots during the 1987-98 and 1988-89 seasons.
The Cairo school district offered to reimburse the Venice district $506 for traveling expenses for each proposed trip.
The Red Devils will leave Venice High School at 2 p.m. Feb. 7 by chartered bus and play a 6:30 p.m. game in Cairo, Vickers said.

Mudge is the son of the late Dick H. Mudge, a former crime-fighting Maddison County state's attorney for eight years.

The case was prosecuted by the II-linois attorney general's office. Dick Allen, the present Madison County state's attorney, removed himself from the case in March 1985 because he and Dick Mudge had been close friends for a number of years.

MRS. REED said the late Dick Mudge's political influence "had everything to do with" the verdict.

"I can understand how the judge reached his decision," said Patrick O'We took different inferences. We concluded differently.

O'Brien acknowledged the radical change in Nuernberger's testimony.

"I GUESS he just took another look at the evidence," he said.

Defense attorney J. William Lucco told the court that Nuernberger "got everyone on a wild goose chase."

"There is just in evidence here."

"To require media to get permission—to—interview, photograph—or otherwise perform normal news reporting functions is absurd and unconstitutional on its face." Bennett said. "There is no place in the American trial system for this type of repression, particularly when no danger to, or serious disruption of, the trial has been demonstrated."

The order also specifically im-poses criminal contempt penalties on any person or organization on whose behalf the order is violated.

Madigan and McPike again lead House

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois House Speaker Michael Madigan's re-election to a third term sailed through the House on a straight par-ti san yote.

ti san vote.
Rep. Jim McPike, D-Alton, who will continue for a third term as Flouse majority leader — the second most powerful House post nominated Madigan, a Chicago Democrat.

"He makes me and, I hope, all of you proud to wear the title of politi-cian," McPike said of Madigan.

After speeches by Madigan and House Republican Leader Lee Daniels calling for a spirit of bipar-tisan ecooperation in the next two
